NEW ARRIVALS

Dear wholesalers, business partners, supermarket customers and lovely consumers,

The time never stops for us, we have just presented our latest yield in „Natural & Organic Products Europe“ exhibition at London, and now this week we are off to Uzbekistan to check the sowing and blooming period. You can view latest information and photos on our Facebook web page: Facebook

New batch:

Our “Bio-leben Pine Nuts” bask in the glory of new design and are obtained from Sicily!

We purchase our Organic Pine Nuts from the slopes of Mount Etna, where they are grown in the nutritious volcanic soil and under the sun of southern Italy. This special landscape lends our Organic Pine Nuts their unique taste! A pure pleasure and hereby suitable as a vegetarian – vegan snack or for cooking as it is done in the Mediterranean region.

In this Newsletter, we introduce our Organic Sour Cherries and our Organic Mulberries. We started our Organic production in Uzbekistan by our Organic Sour Cherries. Today, after 8 years, these are counted amongst one of our most durable products. A successful recipe which can be explained by its simple taste! In contrast to this, our organic mulberries are a new addition to our product range. If you have not tasted it already, we guarantee you – it is definitely worth tasting! You can inquire to your favourite organic store, or order it directly from our Online Shop.

ORGANIC SOUR CHERRIES

The cherries of Pearls of Samarkand are obtained from wild collection of primeval forests at Samarkand plateau. They are distinguished by an extremely fruity and intensive acid content. In this way, it lends a pleasant fruity taste to muesli, cakes, desserts and jams!

It is perfectly suited as a snack for munching in between the meals as an alternative to traditional snacks.

ORGANIC WHITE MULBERRIES

Mulberries are one of the oldest dried fruits and were consumed very frequently in ancient Egypt as well as in the ancient world. White mulberries are very rare and are distinguished by an intense sweet and sour flavor.

We recommend our dried white mulberries as a healthy vegetarian - vegan snack for munching in between the meals. This fruity sweet snack provides you with instant energy, but no fat.

ORGANIC BLACK MULBERRIES

Black mulberries are a special novelty item from Samarkand and are distinguished by their intense black color and an intensively sweet and sour taste.

You can create a variety of wonderful combinations with muesli, cakes or desserts as well as fruit and nut mixtures by the fruity flavor.

We offer you a mini trial pack for tasting our Organic Himalayan Mixture, Organic 7 Tibetan Mixture and our Organic Superfruits. All unique products from the product range of “Pearls of Samarkand”.
